Shopify Power: Build An Ecommerce Website Using Shopify

History. Shopify was founded in 2004 by Tobias L tke, Daniel Weinand, and Scott Lake after attempting to open Snowdevil, an online store for snowboarding equipment. Dissatisfied with the existing e-commerce products on the market, L tke, a computer programmer by trade, instead built his own. L tke used the open source web application framework Ruby on Rails to build Snowdevil's online store ...

Every designer we spoke with specifically recommended Shopify for any business that's looking to sell goods online. Although our top picks have built-in ecommerce tools, it makes more sense for most businesses to use Shopify, or at least its Lite version, and embed Shopify's tools into their websites. Shopify works with both of our top picks, and you won't be locked in if you decide to ...

When you think of leaders in the computing industry, your first thoughts probably turn to companies like Apple, Microsoft, and IBM. But flash back a few decades, and the leaders of those companies all would’ve gladly bowed down to Digital Equipment Corporation, or DEC, who began paving the way for everyone starting in 1957.

DEC & Digital Equipment Corporation: Where Did They Go

You've already found clients, put in the hours, and completed the work. Now it's time to get paid. Invoicing should be the easiest part of your process, but creating and sending an invoice can be a time suck—and one you're not getting paid for. Invoicing software does the grunt work for you ...
